

SHORTHORN

"Hats Off" To

Margaret McCullough, Allerton, who was elected to the American Junior Shorthorn Association as director.

Duane Petty, Eldora, Who was named the top individual judge in the Shorthorn division of the judging contest held at the Heifer Classic in Omaha.

Dean Petty, Eldora, who placed 8th in the 4-H division of judging contest held with heifer classic. 700 youth competed in all divisions.

Kevin Lamparek, Swisher, who showed a first place heifer at the heifer classic, in Omaha.

Iowa Junior Shorthorn Association Officers 1975

PRESIDENT: Duane Petty, Rt. 2, Eldora 50627

VICE-PRESIDENT: Randy Burns, Rt. 2, Box 270, Eldora 50627

SECRETARY-TREASURER: Dee Moffitt, Rt. 3, Indianola 50125

REPORTER: Becky Wollesen, Lake View 51450

Directors:

Southeast:

Beth Duffy, Solon, & Barbara Simmons

South Central:

Margaret McCullough, & Dee Moffitt

South West:

Mary Wilkerson, Liden

North West:

Veronica Adams & Becky Wollesen

North Central:

Lisa Friesth, Rosemary Greely

Central:

Duane Petty, & Randy Burns

Junior Shorthorn Show

Kevin Lamparek of Swisher showed the reserve champion heifer

All the Lassie Queen candidates presented the reserve champion trophy to Mary Wilkerson, show Sunday. The candidates include [left to right] Susanne Braet, Pat Turner, Debi Johnson and Beth Ann Duffy.

Judge Steve Schilling, Cambridge, Illinois selected a March 19 heifer shown by Kevin Lamparek, Swisher, as the Grand Champion Heifer of the 9th annual Iowa Junior Shorthorn Preview Show held Sunday at the Hardin County Fairgrounds in Eldora. Reserve Heifer was shown by Mary Wilkerson, Linden. Group of 3 heifers were shown by Kevin Lamparek, Swisher.

Six classes of 1974 heifer were shown with Mary Wilkerson, Linden winning three of them, Kevin Lamparek, two, and Veronica Adams, Hartley, one.

Two classes of bulls were shown with Kevin Lamparek, Swisher and Margret McCullough, Allerton as class winner. Grand Champion and Reserve both were shown by Kevin Lamparek.

Light weight steer was shown by Connie Bartlema, Runnels; Middle weight, Kim Wheeler, Heavyweight, Steve May of Muscatine. Champion was the 940 lb steer shown by Steve May. Reserve went to Kim Wheeler.

Crossbred winner was Diane Koutney, of Springville. 11 steers were shown in the crossbred class which was not eligible for Champion.

Showmanship honors went to Kevin Lamparek in the Junior Division, and Mary Wilkerson, Linden in the Senior Division.

Premiere exhibitor and family premiere exhibitor awards both were won by Kevin Lamparek.

Special awards were presented during the noon program by Duane Petty, pres. I.J.S.-A. to, Doug Petty, Gilbert, and Jeff Connell, Muscatine. They received honorary memberships in the American Junior Shorthorn Assn. for their work with the Juniors and Shorthorns. Both young men had been President of the Iowa Jr. Assn. and both were National Directors of American Jr. Shorthorn Assn.

The first Service Award was presented to the Hardin County Savings Bank of Eldora, who has contributed to all 9 state shorthorn shows and for the past 8 years has sponsored the champion heifer trophy.

The Iowa Jr. Shorthorn Assn. started a traveling trophy in memory of Claudia Adams, a former director and queen who died early this year. The trophy was presented for the Champion Heifer and went to Kevin Lamparek, Swisher.

Margret McCullough, Allerton, Iowa Shorthorn Lassie Queen was present to make the awards. She was assisted by this years candidates for Queen who are Veronica Adams, Hartley; Beth Ann Duffy, Solon; Pat Turner, Indianola; Debi Johnson, Roland; and Susanne Braet, Calamus.

Duane Petty, Eldora President of the Iowa Jr. Shorthorn Assn. and Randy Burns, Eldora Vice President were in charge and assisted by directors from throughout the state.